CIVIL ACTION
FILE NO. 1:06-CV-1354

██████████ FINAL JUDGMENT OF DEFAULT
AGAINST DEFENDANT DANIEL ERIC BYER

This matter came before this Court on the motion of Plaintiff, Securities and Exchange Commission, seeking entry of a final judgment by default, providing it with the relief requested in its Complaint against Daniel Eric Byer ("Defendant" or "Byer") by reason of his failure to answer the Commission's Complaint, or otherwise appear in or defend this civil action.

This Court having considered the pleadings and declarations on file herein makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law:

1. The Commission's Complaint against Defendant was filed herein on December 4, 2006.

2. On December 4, 2006, the Court entered a temporary restraining order (“TRO Order”) and other emergency relief against all defendants, which provided, among other things, that service of the TRO Order, the Summons and the Commission’s Complaint may be made by various means, including any manner authorized by Rule 5 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

3. Rule 5(b)(2)(B) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provides that service may be made by “[m]ailing a copy to the last known address of the person served. Service by mail is complete on mailing.”

4. Defendant was served by mail with the TRO Order, the Complaint and Summons on December 5, 2006.

5. In addition, Defendant was personally served on January 3, 2007. The Return of Service of the Summons and Complaint for Defendant was filed with the Court on January 22, 2007.

6. On December 4, 2006, this Court ordered Defendant, within ten business days of the entry of the Order, to file with the Court a sworn accounting of his assets and bank accounts. The Court also ordered Defendant, within twenty-four hours, to take steps to repatriate to the United States all assets of investors described in the Complaint, and provide to the Court a written description of the assets so repatriated. The Court also ordered Defendant to appear before the Court on December 11, 2006, on a possible hearing for a Preliminary Injunction.

7. On December 11, 2006, the Court entered a Preliminary Injunction (“PI Order”), again ordering Defendant, within seven business days of the entry of the PI Order, to file with the Court a sworn accounting of his assets and bank accounts. The PI Order also required Defendant, within twenty-four hours, to take steps to repatriate to the United States all assets of investors described in the Complaint, and provide the Court a written description of the assets so repatriated.

8. Defendant has not submitted to the Court the ordered accounting, the ordered description of his efforts to repatriate assets, and has not filed an answer to the Complaint, nor otherwise appeared in this matter.

9. Despite the fact that Defendant has not appeared in this matter, he has had actual notice that these proceedings are ongoing.

10. Defendant is not an infant or incompetent. Defendant is not eligible for relief under the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 [50 U.S.C. Appendix, § 501 et seq.].

11. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant, and the subject matter jurisdiction over this action. Venue is proper in this district.

12. The Commission seeks an order enjoining Defendant from committing future violations, or causing future violations, of Sections 5 and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 ("Securities Act") [15 U.S.C. §§ 77e and 77q(a)], Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act"), [15 U.S.C. § 78j(b)] and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, [17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-5].

13. The Commission seeks the entry of an order that directs Defendant to pay disgorgement, representing the amount paid or attributable to him from the proceeds of unlawful securities transactions set out in the Commission's Complaint and prejudgment interest accrued at the rate permitted by law, from the date the funds were received through the date of this motion.

14. The Commission seeks to recover an appropriate civil penalty from Defendant pursuant to Section 20(d) of the Securities Act and Section 21(d)(3) of the Exchange Act, because his violations of the federal securities laws, as described in the Commission's Complaint, (a) involved fraud, deceit and a deliberate or reckless disregard of regulatory requirements, and (b) directly or indirectly resulted in substantial losses to investors or, at least, created a significant risk of substantial losses to investors.

On the basis of the foregoing findings of fact and conclusions of law:

I.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that Defendant, his officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys-in-fact and those persons in active concert or participation with him who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise, and each of them, be and hereby are permanently restrained and enjoined from violating, directly or indirectly, Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. ' 78j(b)] and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder [17 C.F.R. ' 240.10b-5], by using any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce, or of the mails, or of any facility of any national securities exchange, in connection with the purchase or sale of any security:

(a) to employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud;

(b) to make any untrue statement of a material fact or to omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, or

(a) to employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud;

(b) to obtain money or property by means of any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission of a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; or

(b) Unless a registration statement is in effect as to a security, carrying or causing to be carried through the mails or in interstate commerce, by any means or instruments of transportation, any such security for the purpose of sale or for delivery after sale; or
